Special city meeting.

TO CONSIDER APPROPRIATIONS. Citizens to Decide Regarding Additional $1,500 for Fire Department.

The electors of the city will meet in special session this evening in the town hall to decide whether or not they wish to appropriate an addition-al fifteen hundred dollars for the use al fifteen hundred dollars for the use of the fire department, to be used for purchasing more hose, repairing the flooring in the Montgomery Hose company's house on Jackson street, and other needs of the department.

Following last Monday's special meeting of the board of aldermen, the question of completing the work.

question of completing the work of resurfacing Pleasant street will also be laid before the voters, and it is be laid before the voters, and it is probable there will be few if any op-ponents of this measure. The work already done there is a great improve-ment, and one needed, and it would be well to complete the street while the men are engaged there.

Improved Sidewalks,

Men working under Contractor Lar-rabee are busy at sidewalk construc-tion on Pleasant street, where new cement walks are being laid from the footbridge to the Moose home. People who have occasion to use the street will hardly know the spot, with up-to will hardly know the spot, with up-to-date walks, and a new roadbed, both of which improvements have been needed for some time. The present year has been a record one for this city in the construction of the cement sidewalks, and the wisdom of the sidewalks, and the wisdom of the landinactiving company, and Abber course pursued in that regard is well Sypher, who did not strike, but is evidenced by the way in which the full amount of the city appropriation ols used up each year, through the petition of property owners who desire to make their land more attractive.

Seek $2,000 Each from Huber Clark Estate.

A hearing was held at the probate court Saturday morning in the estate of the late Huber Clark, on the matter of the claims of Miss Beda Peterson and Mrs. Claire M. Case, each of whom had asked for an amount of two thousand dollars, for services performed during the lifetime of Mr. Clark. Attorney William A. King ap-peared for the claimants, and Attorney Charles A. Capen, who is administrator of the estate, appeared to oppose the claims. Judge L. J. Storrs of Mansfield occupied the bench, in the absence of Judge Shea. The claims had been disallowed by the administrator and the bearing was forther trator, and the hearing was for the appointment of commissioners to decide on the matter. Judge Storrs appointed Samuel B. Harvey and P. J. Danahey.

Company L Returns. The members of Co. L. First C. N. returned Saturday night from the state encampment at East Haven, well pleased with their week's trip. Fair weather, which is something the other companies missed, followed the Willimantic boys all the week and made their stay most enjoyable.

OBITUARY.

Augustus Vanderman,

The burial of Abgustus Vanderman, 71, who died at St. Joseph's hospital in this city, Friday afternoon, will take place today in Hartford, following services in St. Joseph's church in this city. The deceased was a brother of the late William Vanderman and of the late William Vanderman and unmarried. He was a veteran of the Civil war, and served for a time in the regular army. He moved to the west some time ago, returning east to visit his sister, Mrs. May Britton, of this

Their presence, their music and their glowing testimonies greatly added to the interest of the meeeting. Over a hundred testimonies were given to the comfort of Christ's salvation in the every-day experiences of life. District Superintendent Scrivener read a Scriptural testimony from a well-known attendant of the campmeetings and a former presiding elder of the district, detained by illness from coming, Rev. Henry D. Robinson, of Attleboro. His closing words were: "My heart, my prayers and my love are with you all."

Preaching Service. The S. A. band led off with a sacred medley, and accompanying the first hymn. Rev. A. H. Withee, Moosup, read the scripture. Prayer was offered by Rev. Samuel Thatcher, Jewett City. Mass., was the preacher. His text was 1 John, 2: 15: "Love not the His text world." It was a special sermon to Christians. Life is a bundle of interests, and it is most important to know what most interests us. By "world" John does not mean the green earth, nor the folks in it, but the world-spirit that is contrary to the will of God. Only he who does God's will abides forever, for the old world

Sunday Afternoon Services. At 2 o'cclock Dr. Sheridan preached from 2 Corinthians, 5: 19: "God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself." God's revelation of Himself has been ever gradual. Nature reveals a God of power, but not always of love, because much suffering is caused by the catastrophes of nature. God is also in history, in the decay and the rise of nations. Out of the present carnage in Europe will come the doing away of the formal Christianity that has so largely ruled in Europe for the come the doing away of the formal Christianity that has so largely ruled in Europe for the come for the catastrophes of nature for nature for the catastrophes of nature for in Europe for the past century and the uprising of a real Christianity that oves men and respects the sanctity of human life. God is in conscience, and also in literature, and in the prophets. But in none of these ways is God reconciling men unto Himself,
